

Around the World
Alternative Quiz for Chapter 10

NAME _____

DATE: _____

1. Why is the best summary of Chapter 10?

- a) When people got cars, they started forming suburban cities.
- b) Thanks to man-made dams, people can now live in the desert.
- c) Because of air conditioning, the population of Florida has increased ten times.
- d) Landforms used to determine where people could live on Earth, but technological developments have changed those rules.

2. What is NOT stated in Chapter 10?

- a) Before the Tennessee Valley Authority, Chattanooga used to flood a lot more than it does now.
- b) There are desalination plants in the United States.
- c) Railroads are what allowed large cities to grow that don't happen to be near a large body of water.
- d) It is much cheaper to build a building on flat land rather than on a hill.

3. What is something a person might conclude from the satellite image on the top of page 56 (also shown on the online teacher's guide)?

- a) It rains more in Las Vegas than in the area around Las Vegas.
- b) A lot of people use water from Lake Mead to water their lawns in Las Vegas.
- c) There are a lot of suburban communities around Las Vegas.
- d) There are a lot of swimming pools in Las Vegas.