

Around the World
Alternative Quiz about Chapter 7

NAME _____

DATE: _____

1. Why is the best summary of Chapter 7?

- a) Many Americans now call the body of water between Florida and Mexico the Gulf of America.
- b) The Mediterranean Sea goes by at least five names.
- c) There are many examples in the world where one people call a body of water or a mountain one thing and another people call it something else.
- d) In the last 10 years, the highest mountain in the United States has changed names twice.

2. What is not stated in Chapter 7?

- a) The Japanese call the body of water between Japan and Korea the West Sea.
- b) President McKinley climbed the mountain Alaska that was named for him.
- c) The Congo River is the longest river in Africa.
- d) They body of water that we call the Mediterranean Sea goes by several names.

3. What might be a cause of what is described in this chapter?

- a) Many nations speak different languages.
- b) Over the years, civilizations come and go.
- c) Throughout history, neighboring nations disagree on many things.
- d) All of the above.