

Work for Freedom

Chapter 3 Worksheet

Name _____

1. What are two things that the Battle of Stone's River and the Battle of Shiloh have in common? _____

2. Who was the only U.S. Senator from a Confederate state who remained loyal to the U.S. government? _____
3. TRUE OR FALSE: Ministers who refused to take Governor Johnson's oath were known to have their churches turned into hospitals or places where ammunition was stored. _____
4. Why did the Emancipation Proclamation not free enslaved people in Tennessee? _____

5. What was the main effect of the Emancipation Proclamation in Tennessee? _____

6. How many enslaved people enlisted in the U.S. Army in Tennessee? _____
7. What was the name of the fort south of Nashville that former slaves helped build? _____
8. What order did Nathan Bedford Forrest give to his men at the Battle of Parker's Crossroads? _____

9. Beyond the text: See the definition of ironic¹, below. What is ironic about the fact that Braxton Bragg led a Confederate army at the Battle of Stone's River? _____

¹ ironic – something that turns out totally different than what you would expect.